GENESIS AND GEOLOGY; or, an Investigation into the Reconciliation of the Modern Doctrines of Geology with the Declarations of Scripture.

By DAVID CROFTON, Esq. B.A.

"This very able and interesting dissertation was first inserted in Kitto's Quarterly Journal of Sacred Literature, and it is now republished, with additions. We will say for Mr. Crofton that his Dissertation appears most complete in its way, and to grapple with scientific difficulties in a way which brings out unmistakably his scientific and theological attainments, and his powers of able and vigorous argument."— English Review.

"I have taken the responsibility of recommending this little work to place it within reach of American Christians, for the following reasons:—First, because, I have met with no examination of the connection between 'Geology and Genesis' so able as this. Other eminent writers, such as Dr. Chalmers, J. Pye Smith, Harris, Buckland, Silliman, Sedgewick, and Whewell, have shown great skill in the examination of the Biblical questions connected with geology, but none of them have gone so fully into the argument as Mr. Crofton. Second, because he has opened a track which may be followed further by Biblical students. I mean in the examination of parallel passages of inspiration. Finally, because his course of argument is eminently adapted to satisfy the authorized exponents of God's Word—I mean the Ministers of the Gospel—that there is no collision between 'Genesis and Geology.'—Edward Hitchcock, D.D., Author of 'The Religion of Geology.'"

THE COLLECTS OF THE LITURGY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND Catechetically explained, compared with Scripture, and briefly commented on, with the date and origin of each Collect annexed. By Rev. CHARLES MILLER, B.A. With Recommendatory Preface, by the Bishop of Meath.

"I conceive it to be eminently fitted to answer the important end contemplated by its Author; and by its varied information, and its deep devotional tone, well calculated to awaken attention, refine the understanding, and discipline the heart.
... I wish it heartily a large circulation, and sincerely recommend its adoption in Sunday Schools and Week-day Schools. It will tend to encourage the habit of examining our Liturgy, not critically but devotionally; and I do believe that the blessing of prayer will attend and sanctify such an habit."
—From the Preface by the Bishop of Meath.
